Jubilee Market Place

Since 1999, Jubilee Marketplace has proudly served the Financial District of New York City by providing our neighbors with fresh, organic, mindfully sourced, sustainable, and locally produced goods. As the preferred full-service grocery store of FIDI, Jubilee Marketplace is steadfast in our commitment to delivering fast, friendly service alongside our outstanding selection of organic, gourmet, imported, and conventional products.

Jubilee Marketplace receives fresh produce daily and offers the freshest meat and seafood you can find in NYC. Our selection of groceries, organic produce, as well as our fresh meat and fish is big enough to provide our neighborhood with everything they need to create a delicious meal or stock their pantry – but small enough to get everything they need quickly and easily.

Beyond our exceptional full-service meat and fish department, our incredibly fresh produce, and our robust assortment of grocery staples and luxury items, Jubilee Marketplace is a community focused small business with a deep sense of commitment to our neighborhood and the greater good.

An active participant in local school events, neighborhood gatherings, and community improvements, Jubilee Marketplace believes that the first step in being a top-notch local neighborhood grocer is to be an active participant in helping the neighborhood thrive.
